ORDER

Based upon the record in the above-captioned case, the court orders that the Defendant's "Motion in Limine" (filed May 6, 1993) IS GRANTED IN PART AND DENIED IN PART as follows:

A. The Plaintiffs shall not, in the presence of the jury, attempt to introduce or refer to the following:

1. Robin Zahran is of Palestinian or Arab ancestry;

2. There allegedly was racism in his farm

community and/or by Frankenmuth;

3. This Court's rulings from previous trials, including the windstorm case, 90-C-337, or the previous trial of this matter, April 26-30, 1993;

4. Allegations of misrepresentation or concealment of fraud by any party or their representatives;

5. Underwriting information or testimony about Robin Zahran's brother-in-law living at the farm;

6. Testimony or information about allegations of arson, slander, libel, civil rights violations or deceptive practices;

7. Investigation of Plaintiffs or their marital records or other public records;

8. Comments about Frankenmuth's attorneys or their law firm;

9. Alleged conspiracy between the Sheriff of Manitowoc County and Frankenmuth; and

10. Allegations of perjury and/or false

D. The Plaintiffs shall not introduce any evidence concerning lost milk production. Such evidence would only be relevant to the Plaintiffs' bad faith claim upon which judgement has been granted as a matter of law in favor of the Defendant.

E. The Plaintiffs shall not introduce any evidence of consequential damages, including the death of cows, unless and until they are able to produce evidence supporting their claim that the animals died as a result of the Defendant's breach of contract.

Done and Ordered in Chambers at the United States Courthouse, Milwaukee, Wisconsin this 16th day of May, 1993.
